LIVING LIKE HUMAN MOLES BRITISH SOLDIERS HOLD LIBYAN FRONTIER LINE

LONDON, June 21 (Reuter)—The following message was received from Reuter's Special Correspondent with the British forces in the Western Egyptian desert:

Living like human moles, British soldiers are holding a line on the Libyan frontier and are constantly harassing the enemy with patrols in the coastal region In the vicinity of Sollum.

saw them among a scrub beside the trenches into which they scramble when enemy aircraft appear over Sollum on their regular twicedaily bombing and machinegunning excursions.

Some of the machines, mying yery high, drop high explosive bombs in the sand; others fly about 100 feet and try to machinegun the troops crouching in the trenches who return fire with Bren zuns. At the same time, these low-flying planes throw out small hand bombs.

MAIN BRUNT

Apart from the R.A.F. the main brunt of the fighting in the Western Desert has fallen on the British armoured units and, thanks to them British troops at present dominate" 3,500 square miles of Italian territory.

Already there are many stories of bravery and initiative which Won for them striking successes with very few losses.

An audacious series of coups and captures have been effected by four British armoured cars on the Bardia-Tobruk coastal road in enemy territory. The total haul of these four cars was 34 lorries three Staff cars and three civilian cars destroyed, one Italian officer and 20 men killed and ten Italian officers, including a General, 6 Italian and 17 native soldiers captur-

REFUGE "NOT PART OF A CROSSING"

WALKER LOSES APPEAL

The Court of Appeal held that refuge in a controlled pedestrian crossing is not part of the crossing for the purposes of the traffic regulations.

The court dismissed the appeal of Mr. John Joseph Wilkinson, of Willington, co. Durham, whose skuli was fractured when he was knocked down by a car after he had stepped off a refuge at Artillery-row, S.W. Mr. Justice Asquith had decided that he could not recover damages because of his contributory negligence.

The car was that of Miss Dorothy Frances Chetham-Strode, o Greycoatgurdens, Westminster. THE JUDGMENT

Lord Justice Blesser, giving judgment, said that if the crossing was to be regarded as one continuous crossing Miss Chetham-Strode would be liable because she failed to give Mr. Wilkinson "free and uninterrupted passage." But there was nothing in the regulations to prevent the conclusion that there were here to be considered two crossings.

Lord Justice Goddard said he hoped the Ministry of Transport would issue further regulations to clarify the position. There ought to be no doubt as to the respective obligations and privileges of drivers and pedestrians. Leave was granted to sopeal to the House of Lords.

CHINESE SPOKESMAN ON THE WAR SITUATION

Ichang Retaken By Invaders But Shasi In Chinese Hands

CHUNGKING, June 21 (Central) -A Chinese military spokesman said in a press interview yesterday that Ichang which was recontured by the Chinese on June 17 was again lost to the Japanese on June 18 but Shasi, 110 miles above Hankow, was recaptured on June 19.

According to the spokesman, Chinese troops are now deployed in the outskirts of Ichang. After two days' severe counter-assaults. they have reached within one third of a mile from the city and are expecting to break into it again momentarily.

JOHN THE BAPTIST: THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF PARIS

HONOUR HAS BEEN GIVEN BY THE CHURCH SINCE ITS POUNDATION TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST, whose feast occurs next Monday. He was praised by Christ as "greatest of all born of women," and by both word and example he prepared the way for Christ's teaching. Apart from hisoffice of "precursor," or forerunner of the expected Messias, he was a most remarkable personality.

-The market has been overshadowed by the gravity of the War news and dealings have been on a much restricted scale. Prices recorded show a decline, which however, causes no surprise. The feature is that trading, although confined and to well selected stocks. has been possible, with only a moderate drop in price levels.

NEW YORK COTTON: The early advance attracted more: active July liquidation and heavy Southern selling. The poor export outlook and the uncertainty of war news are disturbing facttors. According to a survey made by the N.Y. Cotton Exchange service, a decline of more than 5,000,000 bales in the annual rate of world consumption is threatened by the recent war area.

NEW YORK RUBBER: Trade shorts were buying on a thin market. The Trade is watching Far Eastern developments closely. CHICAGO WHEAT: Weather and crop news are moderately bullish, but outside interest is disappointing. Good rains are needed over a wide area in the South-West to allay apprehension.
